Mr. Bannerman via Mr.

A long time ago I mentioned at a noon meeting that we had received a copy of the second annual report of the Intelligence Information Handling Committee. You asked me if it contained anything of critical interest to the Support Directorate. There are many things of interest but I believe none of them are critical. The Offices of Communications and Security have the primary interest and both of them have copies. They are also in touch with the items of primary interest to them.

Highlights of the report are summarized in Chapter 2 beginning on page 5 which also contains page references for items which may be of particular interest.

 is the CIA member of the Education and Training Subcommittee of the Information Handling Committee and has been closely involved with the content of Chapter 8.
